Professional Expertise

Julie Miller is a seasoned commercial real estate professional with over 20 years of experience in marketing, operations, and brokerage support. Since 2011, she has served as Senior Brokerage Specialist for Cushman & Wakefield's South Florida Industrial Team, where she drives property marketing strategies and manages critical administrative functions, including revenue documentation, listing agreements, activity reporting, and broker event coordination.

Julie plays an integral role in client service and transaction support, assisting with property tours, lease negotiations, and sale contract processing. She also oversees the team's social media and public relations initiatives, ensuring strong market visibility and brand presence.

As Chair of Cushman & Wakefield's South Florida Women's Integrated Network (WIN), Julie champions diversity and inclusion by fostering leadership development and empowering women professionals across the industry.

Prior to joining Cushman & Wakefield, Julie held marketing and executive operations roles with Brenner Real Estate Group, McCraney Property Company, and Liberty Property Trust, gaining deep expertise in property marketing and client engagement.
